

Campaigns

The difference between send message and add campaign

The difference between sending message and adding campaign is to see the statistics after the campaign or during it, in addition to the target audience feature where you can reach the largest possible part of people during a short period of time , in addition to that you can send through groups or contacts or by downloading a file excel contains the numbers you want to send to them, with some pressure on the number list.

Unique solution ID: #1114

Author: Massejli Support

Last update: 2021-06-18 11:19